The Book of Daniel (Ch. 10)
Desperate Prayers

Daniel 10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a revelation was given to Daniel (who was called Belteshazzar). Its message was true and it concerned a great war. The understanding of the message came to him in a vision.² At that time I, Daniel, mourned for three weeks.³ I ate no choice food; no meat or wine touched my lips; and I used no lotions at all until the three weeks were over.⁴ On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Tigris,⁵ I looked up and there before me was a man dressed in linen, with a belt of fine gold from Uphaz around his waist.⁶ His body was like topaz, his face like lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and his voice like the sound of a multitude.

Daniel 10 ⁷ I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision; those who were with me did not see it, but such terror overwhelmed them that they fled and hid themselves. ⁸ So I was left alone, gazing at this great vision; I had no strength left, my face turned deathly pale and I was helpless. ⁹ Then I heard him speaking, and as I listened to him, I fell into a deep sleep, my face to the ground. ¹⁰ A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. ¹¹ He said, “Daniel, you who are highly esteemed, consider carefully the words I am about to speak to you, and stand up, for I have now been sent to you.” And when he said this to me, I stood up trembling.

Daniel 10 ¹² Then he continued, “Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them. ¹³ But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia. ¹⁴ Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future, for the vision concerns a time yet to come.” ¹⁵ While he was saying this to me, I bowed with my face toward the ground and was speechless. ¹⁶ Then one who looked like a man touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and began to speak.

Daniel 10 I said to the one standing before me, “I am overcome with anguish because of the vision, my lord, and I feel very weak. ¹⁷ How can I, your servant, talk with you, my lord? My strength is gone and I can hardly breathe.” ¹⁸ Again the one who looked like a man touched me and gave me strength. ¹⁹ “Do not be afraid, you who are highly esteemed,” he said. “Peace! Be strong now; be strong.” When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, “Speak, my lord, since you have given me strength.” ²⁰ So he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? Soon I will return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I go, the prince of Greece will come; ²¹ but first I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. (No one supports me against them except Michael, your prince.

God is sovereign and our prayers change things

Daniel was desperate, he humbled himself and prayed for three weeks

“Daniel, mourned for three weeks”

God heard Daniel the moment he prayed and sent an angelic being

“first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard”

Prayer results in so many good things

James 5:16 The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective

Our spiritual eyes are opened and we are able to see the unseen.

Daniel's prayer resulted in revelation of the future

"14 Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future, for the vision concerns a time yet to come."

THE

Daniel's prayer resulted in him personally encountering God

1. God's glory and power
2. God's character, love, kindness, affirmation, mercy and strength

"¹⁰ A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. ¹¹ He said, "Daniel, you who are highly esteemed", ¹² "Do not be afraid", ¹⁶ " touched my lips, ¹⁸ Again the one who looked like a man touched me and gave me strength.

¹⁹ "Do not be afraid, you who are highly esteemed," he said. "Peace! Be strong now; be strong."

Invitation

Intentionally, humbly, and persistently seek God in prayer for what you need right now.

Daniel 10:12 - ...first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard,

James 5:13 - Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray.

Luke 18:1 - “always pray and not give up”

James 5:16 - The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.
